TOM IANNAZONE

Director Of Athletic

Tom Iannacone is in his fifth year as the University of San Diego Director of Athletics. He assumed the position September 1, 1988 after a nationwide search.

The 51-year-old Iannacone has made great strides in his first four years. His accomplishments at USD include an on-going internal reorganization of the athletic department, plus improvements in the major areas of personnel, scholarship assistance, facilities, promotions and marketing, fund raising, drug education, academic support, and a new university approved plan for scholarship support and sports sponsorship. In addition, he was instrumental in USD gaining membership to the new Pioneer Football League, which begins play in 1993.

Iannacone came to the University of San Diego with an impressive list of credentials and a thorough knowledge of intercollegiate athletics. Prior to USD he was Director of Athletics for four years at St. Francis College in Loretto, Pennsylvania.

Hard work, loyalty and dedication are just some of the words that easily describe Iannacone. His major contributions at St. Francis included the expansion of sports offerings and scholarships for both men and women, improved budgets, renovation of athletic facilities, the hiring of additional staff, and the establishment of a master plan for the future and continual development of athletics. He served on several committees, most notably the Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference (ECAC) Infractions committee and the Northeast Conference committee on conference development, which developed a plan for the future and implemented the position for a full-time commissioner. Iannacone also served as a consultant to the NCAA I-AAA Football Committee.

Prior to his tenure at St. Francis, Iannacone served as assistant athletic director at Fordham University from 1977-84. Along with his administrative duties at Fordham, he was an assistant football coach for the Rams. From 1975-78, he acted as offensive coordinator and backfield coach as Fordham captured 19 victories in their final 24 games during this span. The 1977 squad was and remains the highest scoring team in Fordham history, averaging 34 points per game.

In 1983 Iannacone was presented the prestigious Jack Coffey Award by the Alumni Association for outstanding contributions to Fordham athletics. He also served on various Metro Atlantic Conference committees.

Prior to Fordham, Iannacone taught physical education and coached track and football in the Norwalk, Ridgefield and New Milford (CT) school districts from 1964-76. He made his collegiate football coaching debut as an offensive backfield coach at Western Connecticut State University in 1974.

A 1964 graduate of the University of Connecticut, Iannacone received his master of science degree in physical education from Southern Connecticut State University in 1973.

Tom and his wife, Cynthia, have three children: Tom Jr., Jennifer and Eric; all three are students at USD.

The WCC has continued to prove itself as one of the strongest collegiate baseball conferences in the country. Last year saw Pepperdine win its first national baseball title.

The Waves were the league's automatic qualifier to the NCAA Regionals in 1991 while LMU represented the WCC in 1990. Both teams appeared at the NCAA's in 1989. Other conference members include the University of San Diego, the University of San Francisco, Santa Clara University and St. Mary's College. Pepperdine has won the WCC crown in six of the last seven years and has won or shared every conference title but one since 1974.

Baseball was originally established as a conference sport in 1968. However, from 1977 through 1984, WCC teams competed with teams from the PCAA in the Northern California Baseball Association (Nevada, St. Mary's, San Francisco, Santa Clara, Pacific, San Jose State, Fresno State), and the Southern California Baseball Association (Pepperdine, Loyola Marymount, and San Diego from the WCC).

For the second consecutive year, the WCC will play a 30-game round robin schedule with the league champion receiving the WCC's automatic bid to the NCAA playoffs.

JOHN CUNNINGHAM

Head Coach

Head Coach John Cunningham begins his 30th season at the helm of the USD baseball program. With 15 winning seasons under his belt, including last season's 28-24 mark, Cunningham carries a record of 673-687-16 into the 1993 campaign. His team's second place finish last year in the WCC to Pepperdine is the Toreros highest finish since joining in 1985.

A native San Diegan, Cunningham attended St. Augustine High School and the University of San Francisco. A basketball and baseball standout, Cunningham also made the President's Honor Roll six times at USF as well as achieving membership in "Alpha Sigma Nu", the National Jesuit Honor Society. In basketball, he was named All-Conference and listed as Honorable Mention on the Catholic All-American lists and was named USF's "Athlete Of The Year" as a senior.

After a tour in the armed forces and a brief stretch in the farm system of the Baltimore Orioles, Cunningham began his career at USD in 1962. He won his 600th game during the 1989 season. His teams have won thirty or more games six times ('71, '78 through '81, and '87) with four of his squads advancing to post-season playoffs. His 1971 squad won the regional title, advancing to the College World Series, and set a school record with 34 wins. For that performance, Cunningham was named "Coach Of the Year" in District VIII.

1979 was Cunningham's first effort at the Division I level. Contrary to expectations, he guided the Toreros to an impressive 32-19-1 record and a fourth place finish in the Southern California Baseball Association. The Toreros moved into the West Coast Conference in 1985.

Cunningham's fine career has been noticed by his peers. He was inducted into the American Baseball Coaches Association Hall Of Fame at its annual Hall Of Fame-Coach Of the Year banquet in New Orleans on January 5, 1991. An active member of the ABCA for 29 years, Cunningham joined 142 amateur baseball coaches in this elite group.

John and his wife, Nancy, have one son, Geoffrey, age 18.

Assistant Coach JAKE MOLINA

Coach Molina is beginning his eighth season as assistant to John Cunningham. Jake's background prior to USD includes seven years of junior college coaching. He was head coach at Santa Monica College from 1974-77, before taking over the San Diego City College position from 1978 thru 1984. At San Diego City College, Jake led the '80 and '81 teams to the conference championship.

The past four summers Jake has managed the Spanish National Team. He was the Spanish Olympic Team Manager this past summer at the 1992 Olympics in Barcelona.

A native of San Diego, Jake graduated from UCLA in '71 with a degree in Physical Education and received his master's degree in Physical Education in 1972 from San Diego State. Jake and his wife Sherri have one son, Nathan, age 19.

Assistant Coach GLENN GODWIN

Coach Godwin also begins his eighth year as pitching coach for the USD Toreros. A 1982 graduate of USD with a degree in Business Administration, Glenn played for Coach Cunningham's '81 and '82 teams. In 1982, Glenn had a 14-4 record in 21 appearances. Along with his 2.92 ERA, Glenn fanned 142 batters in 148 innings and is one of just eight Toreros to be named All-American.

Godwin was drafted by the Oakland A's organization in 1982 and played A ball for 2 1/2 years between '82-84. Glenn completed his MBA at USD in May of 1987. The past six summers he has managed a baseball team in Sweden, with his squad being crowned the Swedish National Champions two times.

Volunteer Coach RAY BUTLER

Ray Butler begins his sixth season with the Toreros as a volunteer assistant coach to John Cunningham. Prior to assisting the 1988 men's team, Ray was an assistant coach to USD's women's softball team in 1987. An avid softball player, Ray has managed and played in adult softball leagues the past 12 years.

Ray has held a part-time position in the USD Business School as an economics instructor since 1978, as well as a teaching position in SDSU's Department of Economics since 1976.

A 1968 graduate from Cal State Fullerton with a B.A. degree in Economics, Ray also has an M.S. degree in International Economics from UCLA (1969) and an A.B.D. in Economics from UC Riverside (1976).

Ray and his wife Renate reside in the Clairemont area of San Diego.

TOREROS LOOK TO '93 AS A BANNER SEASON

The USD baseball team is coming into the 1993 campaign off its best season in many years. Its 28-24 mark was its best since 1987's 31-23-1 finish, while its second place WCC finish (14-13) was its finest showing ever. With an experienced group of everyday players returning to bolster a young but promising pitching corps and a talented list of newcomers, the USD Toreros have every reason to believe that 1993 could truly be a "Banner Season".

Eight players who started for the Toreros in 1992 return for Head Coach John Cunningham in 1993. Heading the list is USD's "Mister Versatility", senior Kevin Herde. Herde, a two-time team MVP and an All-WCC selection in 1992, will be looking to lead the Toreros in RBIs for the fourth consecutive season. During his time at USD, Herde has played first base, third base, catcher, pitcher and has been the team's DH. He led the '92 Toreros with a .340 batting average, 13 doubles and 44 runs batted in. In 13 appearances on the mound, Herde compiled a 2-1 record with five saves. He is expected to see much action as the Toreros' catcher in 1993, but don't be surprised to see him at 1B, 3B, on the mound and in the DH role, as well.

Three members of what should be a strong infield both offensively and defensively return in 1993. Senior Tony Moeder, who made a smooth transition from centerfield in '92, will anchor the team at first base. The team's home run leader in '92 with eight, Moeder began the season with a 16-game hitting streak and ended with a .337 batting average. Second base will be shared by the duo of senior Dave Pingree and sophomore Eric Morton. Pingree, who has also played third base, shortstop and leftfield during his USD career, batted .305 as a junior while Morton, who started 14 times in '92, batted .200. Shortstop will be the domain of three year starter Chad Boyd. Boyd, a senior, was a second team All-WCC selection in '92 who led the Toreros in hitting in '91 and batted .249 as a junior. He is considered by Cunningham as "the finest fielding shortstop in the WCC". Third base is up for grabs and will be contested by freshmen Karl Schmidt and Jay Parks and junior Scott Thielman, a transfer from CS Los Angeles. Depth in the infield will come from sophomore Dave Romero and freshman Dave Sanchez.

Two sophomores and a junior return to man the outfield spots for the Toreros in 1993. Sophomore Brady Clark began 1992 as a third baseman but ended up in leftfield where he batted .297 with a WCC-leading seven triples and a season-ending 14-game hitting streak. Sophomore speedster Larry Williams, who batted .258 with 27 runs scored as a freshman, returns to his spot in centerfield. Junior Charlie Setzler, a .270 batter with 14 runs scored in '92, will occupy rightfield. This trio will be challenged by a group that includes junior John Fenn, a prime candidate for the DH role who hit .271 as a sophomore, and freshmen Chris Feeny, speedster Steve Ashton and Collin Weitzman.

Handling the catcher's chores will be Herde or either sophomore Jacob Slania or freshman Ryan Burkeen. Slania saw limited action in 1992 and is considered a "fine handler of pitchers", according to Cunningham. Burkeen is a fine defensive catcher who has exhibited a strong throwing arm in early workouts and may be the prime candidate for the starting assignment.

Returning to lead the young Torero pitching staff is sophomore Mike Saipe. Saipe climaxed an outstanding freshman campaign (8-3, 3.53 ERA, 8 complete games, one shutout) by earning a unanimous berth on the All-WCC team and being named the WCC "Freshman Of The Year". He will be joined in the potential starting rotation by sophomore Pat James (3-2, 5.27 ERA in '92), sophomore lefthanders Travis Burgus (1-2, 6.75) and Sean Durbin (who missed the '92 season due to injury) and sophomore righthander Matt LaBelle, a transfer from UC Irvine. Long and middle relief will be the domain of freshman lefthander David Russell and junior righthanders Pete Schoen and Josh Stepner (a second team All-WCC selection as an outfielder when he hit .272 in '92), who is making the transition to the mound in '93. Junior Chris Collins, the USD "Pitcher Of The Year" in 1991 who compiled two saves in '92, will be given the role of closer out of the bullpen with Herde also expected to occupy that role.

The 1993 season will be a challenging one for the USD Toreros. With their fine showing in 1992, the Toreros have given every indication that they are "on the verge of something good", according to Cunningham. They will face an interesting, if not difficult schedule in 1993 that will include six games against defending national champion Pepperdine, two with 1992 runner-up Cal State Fullerton, two with perennial powers UCLA and San Diego State, three with UC Santa Barbara and Cal State Northridge as well as a trip through Louisiana that will see them play a doubleheader with Tulane and a single contest with Southern University.

The stage is set for what should be an interesting 1993 season. With an experienced everyday line-up backed by a young and talented pitching staff, the Toreros are well-placed to play exciting baseball for their avid group of supporters. The 1993 campaign should, indeed, be a "Banner Season".

HEAD COACH: 33 John Cunningham

ASSISTANTS: 6 Jake Molina, 32 Glenn Godwin, 34 Ray Butler

MOLINA LEADS SPANISH TEAM TO OLYMPIC GLORY

The summer of 1992 will forever be special to USD assistant baseball coach Jake Molina. Molina, who is in his eighth season as Head Coach John Cunningham's chief assistant coach, achieved the opportunity to "realize a dream". He spent most of the summer in Barcelona and had the opportunity to experience the 1992 Summer Olympic Games "close up and personal". Jake Molina was head coach of the Spanish Olympic baseball team.

Jake's journey to Barcelona '92 began back in 1988 when he was invited to Spain to work with the youth program in Barcelona. He was tasked with conducting clinics in which both players and prospective coaches were instructed in the fundamental techniques of baseball. After instructing the eager Spaniards on the "ins and outs" of baseball and "putting the teaching principles of the sport together", Molina was invited to work out for two weeks with the fledgling Spanish National Team.

"I figured this would end my association," Molina recalls, "but I was wrong. I was invited to accompany the team to the World Championships in Italy as their pitching coach. Additionally, I was asked to help with the initial stages of planning for the '92 Olympic Games."

Being fluent in Spanish also proved to be an asset and Molina developed a rapport with a Spanish team that was eager to grasp his teaching techniques. The head coach of the team resigned after the 1988 World Championships. Jake Molina was asked to take his place.

Molina accepted the position in June of 1989, just in time to take the team to the Friendship Cup in Wichita, Kansas. This was the first taste of Americana and American baseball for the majority of his players. It was a taste they learned to enjoy, a taste they would experience in the years to come. He followed this up by entering his team in the 1989 European Championships in Paris where "Europe and the world began to sit up and take notice" of the young Spaniards. He guided the Spanish team to a third place finish (beating the Swedish team for third) in the tournament with three of his players batting over .300 and the team setting a tournament stolen base record. Spanish baseball was improving under his tutelage.

Preparations for the Barcelona Games continued and Molina was again asked for his input. He brought his team to San Diego for another "taste of American baseball" and traveled to such places as Cuba, Nicaragua, Chinese Taipei and throughout Europe to give his players "a taste of different styles of baseball throughout the world". Through it all, the master plan continued to evolve. Through it all, Spanish baseball continued to improve.

That plan reached fruition in early 1992. A new format was established to select the team that would represent the host country in baseball in Barcelona, a format Molina says "the players and coaches took to immediately". The top 80 players in Spain were divided into four teams and a selection tournament was played. With Molina leading the selection committee, the 25 players who would carry the Spanish colors and a nation's pride into the 1992 Summer Olympic Games was chosen.

The team made two pre-Olympic trips to Italy, first for the European Championships and then for the Columbus Games. It was at the Columbus Games in Milan that Spain defeated Italy for the first time in 35 years, a feat of such magnitude in Spain that, Molina says, "you would have thought we captured the world title".

"There was so much pride in being the host team for the Olympic Games," Molina says of the competition in Barcelona. "Everywhere we went and everywhere we played was the same. We were besieged by a Spanish people proud to have us representing them. It was a special time and a special experience!"

Of the Olympic games themselves, Molina says, "It was a great feeling to be around peoples of so many different countries, so many great athletes, each with a common purpose and kinship, a common bond. There was so much mutual respect among each of the athletes."

"Everything had to be perfect and it was," Molina says of his fondest memory, the Opening Ceremony. "To see every athlete attired in the costume of his country was so amazing. When we marched into the Olympic Stadium we got a standing ovation from the 90,000 people assembled there. I've never been involved in anything so emotional."

"I'm very satisfied with the team's performance," he now evaluates retrospectively. "We played good, hard baseball in every game. Our upset of Puerto Rico will always be special to me."

Of his experience with Spanish baseball, Molina says, "The Olympic Games are a feather in every Spaniard's cap. Their preparation and effort were first rate. I'm really pleased with the growth of the team in both physical and mental aspects. This team has a chance to be something special if they continue their learning and work ethic."

"The Olympic Games were an experience of a lifetime. It's the best thing I have ever done!"

UNIVERSITY PROFILE

The University of San Diego is an independent Catholic university located on a 170-acre mesa overlooking Mission Bay, San Diego Harbor, and the Pacific Ocean. The campus is named Alcala Park after the Spanish university town where St. Didacus (i.e., Diego) spent much of his time.

Complementing its splendid natural setting is the University's location just 10 minutes from downtown San Diego - conveniently close to the major business, cultural, residential, and recreational areas, as well as the rail, bus and air terminals.

Founded in 1949, USD is presently experiencing record attendance. Undergraduate enrollment stands at 3,900, graduate students bring the overall campus enrollment to just over 6,000.

The University includes a College of Arts and Sciences, and Schools of Business Administration, Education, Nursing, and Law. Each is characterized by high academic standards, small classes, and excellent student-faculty relations.

Though the majority of students come from the West Coast, every region of the United States is well-represented on campus. Students also attend USD from 24 foreign countries.

In January of 1987, USD opened the doors to its new University Center, a 74,500 square foot building for students, faculty and staff. The two level Center is the largest building on campus. It is the eighth major project completed at USD during the past ten years. It's a place for people to meet for leisure and fun, and a place for extracurricular activities.

Recreation, intramural and athletic activities are expanding rapidly. Among the many recreation and intramural programs offered, some of the favorites include: Mission Bay Aquatic Center activities (water skiing, surfing, sailing, crew), modern dance, aerobics, bowling, karate, backpacking, softball, tennis, floor hockey and volleyball.

USD intercollegiate sports for men include football, soccer, cross country, basketball, baseball, crew, tennis and golf. In women's intercollegiate sports, USD fields programs in volleyball, cross country, swimming, basketball, softball, crew, tennis and soccer.
